

The National Society Descendants of American Farmers announces the Prestigious Diamond Award

The individual must have been a farmer for 60 years or more (not necessarily on the same farm) and must be living at the time the application is submitted.

Farmer is not required to own the property which he has been farming.

We are counting on our members to find the farmers who deserve this special award. You probably know one of these farmers maybe at your farmer's market or maybe at church, a family friend or neighbor.

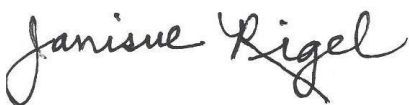

These prestigious Diamond Award farmers will be receiving a certificate (suitable for framing), be listed on our national website with a paragraph about the farmer and the farmer's photograph.

Send the following simple document – application including bio and photograph.

Complete the Diamond Award application in full. If there are any questions, please contact President National.

We are honoring the farmer not the farm, not the land. A committee will review all applications. These awards will be approved based on the bio you submit in the application,

Remember we are counting on our members to find the farmers who deserve this special award.

for such well deserving, heroic American farmers. These in our counties and states... and deserve our sincerest gratitude.
